

Physician

Specialties:

Hepatobiliary Surgery
Surgical Oncology

Board Certifications:

General Surgery

Texas Oncology
Surgical Specialists-
Medical City Dallas
7777 Forest Lane, Suite
C585
Dallas, TX 75230
T: 972-566-4880

Metro Area: Dallas
Spoken Language:
English

General Summary

Brian M. Gogel, M.D., is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and specializes in surgery for intraabdominal malignancy, especially liver and pancreatic tumors, as well as surgery for melanoma for other skin cancers.

Education

Dr. Gogel received a bachelor of science degree, cum laude, from Union College in Schenectady, New York, where he was on the Dean's List of Distinguished Students, was a member of Pi Sigma Alpha's National Political Science Honor Society and Beta Beta Beta National Biology Honor Society. He received his medical degree at Albany Medical College in Albany, New York, where he was awarded for clinical honors in general surgery. Dr. Gogel completed his internship and residency at Baylor University Medical Center, in Dallas, Texas, and completed his fellowship in hepatobiliary surgery and solid organ transplantation also at Baylor Medical Center. Prior to joining Texas Oncology, Dr. Gogel was in private practice with Southwest Surgical Oncology Associates. He has authored and co-authored numerous articles in peer reviewed journals, as well as presenting at national conferences.

Surgery Locations

- Baylor Scott & White Medical Center - Plano
- Medical City Dallas
- North Central Surgical Center Hospital

Other Information

Dr. Gogel enjoys golf, running, and cooking. He is married and has two teenage sons.

Conditions

Dr. Gogel specializes in esophageal cancer, stomach cancer, pancreatic cancer, sarcoma, liver tumors/metastasis, adrenal tumors, kidney tumors, bile duct tumors, melanoma and skin cancers, thyroid and parathyroid disease.

Procedures

Dr. Gogel performs the following procedures: esophagectomy, gastrectomy, liver resection/ablation, resection of bile duct tumors, pancreatic resections, retoperitoneal sarcoma resection, nephrectomy, adrenalectomy, resection of skin cancers, sentinel node biopsy, thyroidectomy, and parathyroidectomy.

Accolades & Memberships

Dr. Gogel is a member of the Society of Surgical Oncology, the American Hepatopancreaticobiliary Surgery Association, the American College of Surgeons, the Dallas County Medical Society, the Texas Medical Society and the Society of Baylor Surgeons. He was the recipient of the Ralph R. Thompson Writing Award for his publication The Effect of Office-Based Thyroid Ultrasound on Clinical Decision Making and was awarded an Outstanding Research Award by the Department of Surgery at Baylor University Medical Center.