General Summary

Rachel E. Kaczynski, D.O., FACOS, FSSO, is a board certified and fellowship trained breast surgical oncologist with a passion caring for patients with breast cancer and those who are at high risk for developing breast cancer. She also practices surgical procedures for benign breast disease, oncoplastic procedures to improve cosmesis and minimize post-surgical scarring, and has an interest in outreach and breast cancer prevention for high-risk populations. Dr. Kaczynski is a former U.S. Air Force flight surgeon who grew up in North Texas, is a proud Texas Longhorn, and excited to return to her home state of Texas with her family.
