

Navigating a Challenge

Reflect on a time when you faced difficulty during your cancer journey.

How did you navigate this challenge?

What coping skills did you use, and how can you use these in future situations?

Who supported or helped you, and how did they provide support?

What are you most proud of in managing this challenge?

What can you take from this experience and apply to your journey?
