Other Information

Emily Carter, originally from New York, now calls the vibrant Montrose neighborhood in Houston home. Alongside her trusted companions, Charlie the corgi and George the bunny, she embraces the lively and diverse atmosphere of her community. When she's not providing compassionate care to her patients, Emily can be found exploring Houston's culinary scene. She loves trying new restaurants and savoring the flavors of different cuisines. Additionally, she enjoys immersing herself in the local arts and culture scene, attending events and exhibitions that showcase the vibrant creativity of the city.
