

Physician

Specialties:

Hematology
Medical Oncology

Board Certifications:

Medical Oncology
Hematology
Internal Medicine

Texas Oncology-
Presbyterian Cancer
Center Dallas

8196 Walnut Hill Lane, Suite
100
Dallas, TX 75231
T: 214-739-4175

Metro Area: Dallas

General Summary

Lalan Wilfong, M.D. currently serves as the medical director of quality programs at Texas Oncology. Dr. Wilfong is also a practicing physician.

Education

Dr. Wilfong earned his M.D. from the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Dallas, Texas in 1997. He completed his internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Dallas, Texas in 2000. In 2003, Dr. Wilfong completed a fellowship at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in hematology and medical oncology. He earned a B.S. degree in mathematics at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas in 1993.

Accolades & Memberships

He is a member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology, Texas Medical Association, American Medical Association, and American Society of Hematology. He serves on the Electronic Medical Record and Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committees for The US Oncology Network. He currently serves as Medical Director of Quality Programs for Texas Oncology. Dr. Wilfong is interested in clinical research and has published on gastric and pancreatic cancers. He has been honored to receive various teaching and community service awards. From 2009-2015, Dr. Wilfong has been elected as one of the best hematology oncologists in Dallas, Texas for D Magazine.