General Summary

Ashley Wray MS, MPH, PA-C has been a PA in colon and rectal surgery with Dr. Voloyiannis since 2014 and is the current advanced practice provider (APP) liaison for the Gulf Coast region in Texas Oncology. PA Wray is devoted to her patients and works alongside Dr. Voloyiannis in all areas of a patient's care. She is specially trained as a first assistant in robotic laparoscopic colon and rectal surgery, and in workup and management of women's pelvic floor disorders including fecal incontinence. She is also certified in cancer genetic risk assessments for high risk patients and their families. She serves on the APP policy sub-committee for Texas Oncology, currently holds a seat on the governance committee for the Texas Academy of Physician Assistants (TAPA) and served as the Vice-President of the Texas Gulf Coast PA Association (TGCPAA) from 2015-2019. Her philosophy is to provide and coordinate high quality, compassionate care through open communication and individualized treatment.
