

Physician Assistant

Specialties:

Genetic Evaluation
Hematology
Medical Oncology

Certifications:

Physician Assistant

Texas Oncology-Austin Midtown

901 W. 38th St., Suite 200
Austin, TX 78705
T: 512-421-4100

Metro Area: Austin

Spoken Language: English

General Summary

Katharine has a whole-person approach to medical care with special interests in genetics and nutrition.

Education

Bachelor of Arts in French from Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Masters of Medical Science in Physician Assistant from Emory University School of Medicine Physician Assistant Program, Atlanta, Georgia.

Research Interest

Katharine has published numerous articles in several medical journals including Clinical Lymphoma, Myeloma and Leukemia, Leukemia and Lymphoma and PA Professional. Most recently, Katharine presented her original research at the 2017 Society of Neuro-Oncology's annual meeting.

Other Information

Katharine is looking forward to launching her website, <http://www.caringforcancer.net> in March of 2018. Katharine is married and has two sons.

Accolades & Memberships

Katharine is a member of The Society of Neuro-Oncology, American Society of Clinical Oncology, Advanced Practitioner Society for Hematology and Oncology.